MANSLAUGHTER IN THIRD DEGREE AGAINST GENEAU

Strong Recommendation to Leniency—Sentence on Wednesday—Progress in Empaneling Jones Murder Trial Jury.

"Territory of Hawaii vs. Edward Geneau, murder first degree. Verdict: We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find the defendant guilty of manslaughter in the third degree and strongly recommend that the Court exercise all possible leniency toward him."
"GERRIT P. WILDER, Foreman."

With the rendering of the foregoing verdict by the jury at a quarter to ten last night, the trial of Edward Geneau for the murder of Ulysses S. Harris on June 30 last was concluded. It is said that for a time the jury stood seven to five for acquittal, but the majority compromised on the low degree found with the merciful rider.

Judge De Bolt will pronounce sentence on Wednesday, which for the offense found may be imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding five years, or a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars. Or it may be imprisonment for one hour or less.

As the jurors, after being heartily thanked by the court, filed out they shook hands one and all with the defendant.

The jury retired at 5:05 o'clock after being ably addressed for the defense by E. A. Douthitt and for the prosecution by Attorney General Andrews.

At 6 o'clock the jury were permitted to go out to dinner, the defendant also being allowed under guard to dine at a restaurant, the court taking recess until 8 o'clock.

After the jury returned to their deliberations not a word was heard from them until 9:30, when they requested to be brought in to ask a question. This gave rise to fears all around that a prolonged deliberation was to come. The question showed, on the contrary, that a verdict of some kind of conviction was as good as reached.

"Your Honor, we wish to know whether a recommendation to mercy can be included in our verdict."

Most assuredly it could, was the reply from the bench with a murmur of assent from the bar.

Geneau, at the time of the offense, was a bluejacket holding the important office of master-of-arms in the crew of the U. S. gunboat Wheeling.

Amongst a crowd filling the courtroom and overflowing into the corridor at the rendering of the verdict were many bluejackets. For the last few days of the trial, that started a week ago yesterday, there was a decided atmosphere of sympathy for the defendant in the court precincts. This was alluded to by the Attorney General in his closing address. Throughout the city, too, the balance of sentiment appeared to be largely in favor of the defendant, taking shape in expressions of hope that if convicted he should be so for one of the minor degrees of homicide. At the same time a stern opinion that it was a case for making a severe example against the use of murderous weapons to avenge personal wrongs did not lack for free-speaking exponents.

When the verdict was rendered Judge De Bolt asked Messrs. Douthitt and Watson if they had exceptions to note. The answer was in the negative, hence there will be no stay of sentence.

Prior to the closing by counsel, the last day's proceedings consisted of evidence for the prosecution in rebuttal by Doctors Sloggett, Cooper and Wood, and for the defense in sur-rebuttal by Doctors Humphris and Wayson.

THE JONES CASE.

In the empaneling of a jury for the trial of E. M. Jones, indicted for murdering Linda K. Jones, the prosecution has four and the defense eight peremptory challenges left. Yesterday the prosecution challenged Stanley Stephenson and the defense E. E. Hartman and Kenneth F. Brown. Eleven jurors passed for cause in the box await further developments on this, the second day of the second week of the trial before Judge Robinson.

COURT NOTES.

J. F. Hackfeld, guardian of Heinrich Wilhelm Ehlers, a minor, asks for approval of his account covering about 16 months to Dec. 31 last. He charges himself with $5464.32 and asks to be allowed $4612.42, showing a balance due the minor of $851.90.

The Territory of Hawaii by Lorrin Andrews, Attorney General, has appealed from Judge De Bolt's decree, against it and in favor of William McCandless, the suit being for an injunction to compel the defendant to remove a fence from within bounds of a road claimed to be a public highway.

Judge Robinson granted the petition of Helen A. Holt, guardian of Valentine S. Holt et al., minors, to sell real estate situated in Maunakea street. Trustees of Gear, Lansing & Co. sue Fred William Thrum for $366.67 on account of rent, and summon Auditor Fisher as garnishee, the defendant being an inspector of contract work at Olua for the Department of Public Works.

Wm. G. Irwin, by his attorney in fact, E. I. Spalding, has brought a replevin suit against High Sheriff Wm. Henry, for one two-seated surrey, a hunting wagon, a phaeton, one double surrey and a buggy, the aggregate value of the property being $600. A bond of $1200 covers the action.

Liliuokalani, by her attorneys, Robertson & Wilder, files a general denial to the complaint of Tung Yau in which damages are asked on account of ejectment by a third party, the right owner, from land occupied by plaintiff under a lease from defendant. P. E. R. Strauch, administrator, returns the value of the estate of Jas. S. Hilton, deceased, as $505.

PRINCE FUSHIMI'S GIFT TO CARTER

The Hawaii Shinpo says:

It is well known that Prince Fushimi of the Imperial Japanese House passed through here several months ago and was treated with the utmost courtesy by Governor Carter, Secretary Atkinson and, in fact, by all Honolulu, both civil and official. When the Prince returned he made presents to both the Governor and the Secretary, as well as others who had been charged with looking after his comfort and enjoyment while here. The present to Governor Carter, it seems, was a silver punchbowl, which has been admired by all who have seen it, but the present to the Secretary is still hidden within its covering, as Mr. Atkinson is away in Washington. Now the Star digs deep into the Constitution of the United States and discovers that Governor Carter violated a section of that Constitution by accepting a present of any sort from a "foreign prince."

That there is a section forbidding the acceptance of such gifts is of course a fact and patriotic Japanese would be far from blaming the citizen of any other country who transgressed the rule. No Japanese in public life can accept a decoration or a present from an official source in any other country and this is a just and proper rule, just as it is in the United States, unless, of course, the official sanction to such an acceptance can be obtained. In the case of Governor Carter's present there is a difference which will be easily noted. To speak accurately the Prince called here as a private Japanese gentleman and was met here by Governor Carter also in his capacity as a private American gentleman. The Prince did not call on the Governor at the capital officially, or in any other capacity, and the Governor called on the Prince in his hotel just as he might have done informally upon any other distinguished stranger who might be passing through. The Prince returned the call at Governor Carter's house, and there the matter ended.

To suggest that the Governor is being bribed in any way by the acceptance of a gift at the hands of Prince Fushimi is, of course, so ludicrous that no one would suggest it. The present of a punchbowl, valuable though it may be, was simply a testimonial of personal esteem. Intrinsically it is probably a valuable piece of plate but theoretically it possesses no more value than a photograph or a mere courteous letter of thanks. Possibly Governor Carter may have his faults, most of us have, but in the matter of the Prince Fushimi punchbowl it is hard to see where just criticism can be leveled at him.

WHOSE FAULT IS IT

A Local Occurrence That Will Interest Many Readers in Honolulu.

If, when a fog horn warns the mariner to sheer off the coast, he still hugs the shore and wrecks upon it, whose fault is it? If the red switch light it up and the engine driver deliberately pulls ahead and pitches into another train, blame the driver. If a careless workman will in spite of warning try to find out how many teeth a buzz saw has, and the saw tries to find out how many fingers the workman has, blame the workman, not the saw. If a sick man knows that a certain medicine is doing him good, and he carelessly neglects to use it, blame the man, not the medicine. If Honolulu people who have kidney complaint and backache will not take Doan's Backache Kidney Pills when they are endorsed by scores of citizens, blame the people, not the indorsees. Read this indorsement:

Mr. John E. Bush of Punchbowl st., this city, is attached to the Hawaiian Interpretation staff at the Supreme Court. He says: "I had kidney trouble, and, acting on the recommendation of a friend, who had tried your invaluable remedy, I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They were just as beneficial to me as they had been to my friend. It is well the virtues of these pills should be made known, for they really are an excellent medicine for kidney trouble."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR SPOILED FINGER

Judge Sanford B. Dole yesterday rendered a decision in admiralty, awarding $1000 damages to William Jackson against the barkentine Encore, where $5000 had been sued for, on account of permanent disablement from his full capacity as a sailor. The libellant shipped on the vessel at South Bend, Wash., for a voyage to Newcastle, N. S. W., thence to a final port on the Pacific Coast, either direct or by way of the Hawaiian Islands. Upon leaving Newcastle the crew of the Encore was working the sails, when the fore-top-gallant sheet broke near the quarter block, by which accident libellant fell to the deck and injured one of the fingers of his left hand. The injury developed into the disease of synovitis, disabling libellant to such an extent that he believes himself unable to procure further employment as a mariner.

It is found by the court that the respondents are liable for the breaking of the rope by which the accident occurred and that the diseased condition of the libellant's hand was due to the injury he received thereby. There was no evidence of Jackson's age on which accurately to say what damages would make up to him for his injuries, but under all the circumstances Judge Dole feels that a judgment of one thousand dollars is reasonable.
